3. Prohibition on communicating or procuring UPSI

3.1 No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI, relating to the Company or Securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other Insiders except in accordance with this Code or where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

3.2 No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to the Company or Securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

3.3 Notwithstanding anything contained hereinabove, UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured:

- a) on a need to know basis, in connection with a transaction that would entail an obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the company; or

- b) on a need to know basis, in connection with a transaction that would not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that sharing of information is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine.

For purposes of the sub-regulations above, (i) the Board shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose as stipulated hereinabove, and shall not otherwise trade in Securities of the Company when in possession of such UPSI and (ii) the Board shall require the compliance officer to maintain a structured digital database containing the names of persons or entities with whom the information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorised by law where the Permanent Account Number is not available. The database shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database..

- c) within a group of persons, if such persons have been identified and secluded within a “chinese wall” or information barrier by the Compliance Officer from the rest of the Company for a particular purpose or for a specified period of time in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations, and are subjected to, among other conditions, additional confidentiality obligations, information barriers designed to prevent exchanges of UPSI outside the “chinese wall”, and the execution of an undertaking by such persons to abstain and / or forego Trading during such seclusion or till the UPSI no longer constitutes UPSI.

4. Prohibition of Trading when in possession of UPSI:

4.1 No Insider shall, directly or indirectly, trade in Securities the Company that are listed or proposed to be listed on a Stock Exchange when in possession of UPSI.

4.2 Provided however that, the provisions of above sub-regulation shall not apply to:

- a) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between Insiders who were in possession of the same UPSI without being in breach of Regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision; and
- b) the UPSI was not obtained under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulation as above and such off-market trades are reported by the Insiders to the Company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the Stock Exchanges within two trading days from the receipt of the disclosures or from becoming aware of such information.
- c) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the UPSI without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision and provided that such UPSI was not obtained by either person under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulation as above.
- d) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bonafide transaction.
- e) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with the applicable regulations.
- f) in the case of non-individual Insiders: –
 - i. the individuals who were in possession of such UPSI were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such UPSI when they took the decision to trade; and
 - ii. appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these Regulations are not violated and no UPSI was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached; and
- g) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with this Code;

5. Trading Window

- 5.1 The Compliance Officer shall notify a “trading window” during which a Designated Person, subject to the compliance with the provisions of this Code, may trade in the Securities of the Company after securing pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in accordance with this Code.
- 5.2 No Designated Person shall trade in the Company’s Securities when the trading window is closed.
- 5.3 Immediate Relatives of the Designated Persons shall not deal in the Securities when the trading window is closed. It is the duty of the Designated Persons to inform the immediate relatives of the closure of trading window and ensure that they do not deal in the Securities of the Company.
- 5.4 The trading window will remain closed for all insiders between the sixteenth day prior to the last day of any financial period for which the unaudited/audited financial results will be considered by the Company and shall open two days after the aforesaid results are considered by the Company.
- 5.5 The Compliance Officer or any other employee from the secretarial department of the Company will notify the Designated Persons about closure and opening of trading window.
- 5.6 The trading window shall also apply to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company such as auditors, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

6. Pre-clearance of trades

- 6.1 When the trading window is open, the Designated Persons, who intend to trade in the Securities of the Company, directly or indirectly or through their Immediate Relatives, and where the value of the proposed trade in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of [Rs. 10,00,000 (Rupees Ten Lakh)], should obtain a pre-clearance for the transaction from the Compliance Officer, as per the provisions of this sub-regulation.

The disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub-regulation, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in sub-regulation (i) above.

- 6.2 Provided however, that, no Designated Persons shall be entitled to apply for, nor shall the Compliance Officer approve the pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Persons is in possession of UPSI even if the trading window is open.
- 6.3 The Compliance Officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such Securities as a “restricted list” which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for pre-clearance of trades.
- 6.4 The pre-dealing procedure shall be as given below:
 - a. An application, complete in all respects, should be made in the Form prescribed in Annexure 1 shall be made by the Designated Persons who intends to trade in the Securities of the Company.
 - b. Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall require an undertaking/declaration as per Annexure 2 to be executed by the Designated Persons who intend to trade in the Securities of the Company, in favor of the Company, to the effect that such Designated Person is not in possession of any UPSI. The Compliance Officer shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
 - c. The Compliance Officer after satisfying himself that the said application and undertaking is in order, true and accurate, and that the proposed trade will not breach the Regulation or this Code shall pre-clear the trades within three working days from receipt of application and undertaking complete in all respects, in the form prescribed in Annexure 3.
 - d. The Designated Persons shall execute their trade in respect of Securities of the Company within seven Trading Days after the approval of pre-clearance is given.

- e. If the trade is not executed within the aforesaid seven days, the Designated Persons must obtain fresh pre-clearance for the trades to be executed, by following the aforesaid procedure above.
- f. The Designated Persons who has executed such trade must make a disclosure of such transaction/dealing in the Securities of the Company to the Compliance Officer, as per the form prescribed in Annexure 4 of this Code, along with the details of the trade executed, within two working days from the date of the execution of the trade. In case the transaction is not undertaken a 'Nil' report must be submitted to the Compliance officer within two (2) working days from the expiry of the aforesaid seven Trading Days.
- g. Contra Trade:
 - i. All Designated Persons who Trade in the Securities of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction ("Contra Trade") during the next six months following the prior transaction.
 - ii. Notwithstanding anything above, if a Contra Trade is executed inadvertently or otherwise in violation of this Code, the profits therefrom must be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI.
 - iii. The Compliance Officer, in consultation with Managing Director, on a case to case basis, may grant relaxation from the strict application of the restriction of a period of six months for such Contra Trade. The Compliance Officer may take necessary undertakings and declarations and seek appropriate information as he deems necessary from the Designated Persons before granting the relaxation. The application for such waiver will have to be in writing giving reasons thereof.

7. Disclosures:

7.1 Initial Disclosures:

- a. Every Promoter, Key Managerial Personnel, Director of the Company and each of their Immediate Relatives shall disclose their holding of Securities of the Company within thirty days of this Code taking effect as per Form A set out in Annexure 5.
- b. Every person on appointment as a Key Managerial Personnel or a Director of the Company or upon becoming a Promoter shall disclose his / her and Immediate Relatives' holding of Securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter, as per Form B set out in Annexure 6.

7.2 Continual Disclosure:

- a.
